HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT IN ASIA:
Capitalizing Human Expertise for Greater Innovation and Creativity
10th International HRD Conference

The Universiti Putra Malaysia warmly invites you to the 10th International Conference of the Academy of HRD (Asia Chapter) in December 3-6, 2011.

We are delighted to be hosting this conference in collaboration with the Academy of Human Resource Development (AHRD) and with assistance of International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), Human Resources Development Berhad (HRDB) and Emerald.

Theme: Capitalizing Human Expertise for Greater Innovation and Creativity

As scholars and practitioners in the field of Human Resource Development, it is essential that we support our people and organizations in advancing knowledge, skills and mindsets in order to adapt and co-create innovations and creativities in various ways.

Streams for Paper Submission

- Innovation and Creativity in HRD
- Sustainable Development & HRD
- HRD Theories & Practices relevant to Asian and Malaysian contexts
- Performance & Career Development
- Training & Organization Development
- Learning & Performance Development
- Decent Work & Quality of Work Life
- Values, Politics, Power, Ethics & HRD
- Leadership & HRD
- Social Networking & HRD
- Community Resource Development
- Gender, Ethnicity, Spirituality, Diversity & HRD
- National HRD
- Global & Cross-Cultural HRD
- Emerging Issues in HRD
- Other relevant issues covering the areas of HRD/HRM, Management, Education, Psychology, Sociology, Anthropology, Philosophy, Economics and other fields of social sciences.

If you feel that your contribution lies outside these areas but is still very relevant to the conference theme then we would welcome your submission.

The stream leaders will select an appropriate sample of refereed papers for submission to be awarded the Best Paper prize. Refereed papers will be published in the conference proceedings. Opportunities to publish papers in relevant journals will also be available.

Types of Submission

Submissions should be made to one or more of the following categories, and all submissions will be subjected to blind peer review process:

- Refereed papers: should be submitted as a full publishable manuscript with empirical findings, or conceptual/qualitative research articles. After acceptance, the full refereed papers should be formatted properly with no more than 6,000 words. The best paper awards will be selected from the accepted papers of this category only.
- Work-in-Progress papers: Please submit an extended summary of your proposal/paper in no more than 3,000 words. These papers will be scheduled for presentation, and the abstracts will be included in the conference program. Work-in-progress (WIP) papers could be proposed conceptual framework based on extensive literature reviews, or research in progress papers with partial results.
- Pre-conference Practice Workshops: Interested professionals and institutions (research institutes, companies, consulting agencies, etc.) may organize and propose pre-conference workshops to demonstrate examples of good HRD practice. Please submit a proposal outlining deliverables of such workshops within 3,000 words. Proposals should have significant learning potential, must be based on sound theory and research, and should not be for publicity or commercial benefits. A brief CV of the workshop leader should be attached.

Submission Dates:

- Manuscripts submission deadline: July 31, 2011
- Authors notified of acceptance decisions: September 15, 2011
- Revised camera-ready submission deadline: September 30, 2011
